Take control of your auction properties and generate more revenue for your business with No Sale, No Fee Auction Search Packs. Earn commission from every sale and don't pay a penny for unsold lots.

Pulling together the array of documentation required for auctions can often be time consuming. With No Sale No Fee Auction Search Packs control of the process reverts to you, leaving the solicitors to complete the special conditions. That means there's no more waiting around for monies on account and duplication of effort. It's never been easier.

Order the components

Order the components of your auction packs as soon as you are instructed. No waiting for monies up front, no chasing round suppliers. From one place you can order, manage and track:

- Legal searches
- Title documents
- Client AML verification
- Electronic Property Information Questionnaire (optional)

Pull the pack together earlier

Pulling the pack together at an earlier stage means:

- Solicitors have more time to prepare legal packs and any special conditions
- More late listings
- More information up front ensuring compliance with CPRs
- Better promotion improving interest and bidding

Generate additional auction income

Set your commission on top of the pack, and with No Sale No Fee you only pay for sold lots.
